The Truth About Salvation / Salvation; Forgiveness; Responsibility; Jesus gives the great commission /
Philippians 2:12-13

Salvation begins a lifelong journey of faith, where we work out our salvation with reverence, empowered by God.

Philippians 2:12-13 ESV

¹² Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³ for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Embrace the Disciple's Responsibility

Ephesians 2:10 ESV

¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Galatians 5:22-23 ESV

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.

Actively Participate in the Great Commission:

Beyond the Moment: The Journey After Salvation

Matthew 28:19-20 ESV

¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Acts 1:8 ESV

⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

- Which of the following actions aligns with our objective to "Actively Participate in the Great Commission" as directed in Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 1:8?

- A) Limiting our evangelism efforts to our immediate circle of friends and family
- B) Only supporting missions without personal engagement in evangelistic work
- C) Organizing and leading Bible studies within our local and global communities
- D) Assuming that the role of spreading the gospel belongs to church leaders alone

- What are the implications of Acts 1:8 for the individual believer regarding participating in the Great Commission, and how can one practically apply this scriptural charge in their daily life?
