9. Wisdom Proverbs

In the first 6 chapters of the book we see the fruit of Solomon's rebellion. By chapter six he has exhausted his search, sees that his results are empty, and comments on this discovery using several parables.

ECCLESIASTES 7:1-29

Solomon writes	statements of wisdom	with a vertical view,
above the sun	that reflects a divine (	)erspective.

Intro - Chapter 6 ends Solomon's search for happiness away from God. Chapter 7 begins his return to God. Chapter 6 Solomon has exhausted his search for meaning under the sun. Chapter 7 Solomon begins writing about true wisdom.

Styles of writing Parallelism is used to accentuate or highlight an idea or word using repetition, contrast and comparison. This device is used to emphasize ideas not words.

Contrasting - Proverbs 13:1 Shows difference

Completive - Proverbs 14:10 Stacks information to complete

Comparative - Proverbs 25:24 Compares

As we go through these Wisdom Proverbs in chapter 7, remember they are in respect to a view of life above the sun includise of God.

I. 7 Wisdom Proverbs

1. The value of a good name -vs.1 comparative Compares a good name to good sintment. For Christians we become the fragrance of Christ. (2 Cor 2:14-16)

2. Death is better than birth -vs. 1b comparative The end of something is better than the beginning. Paul said I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith. (17im 6:12; 27im 4:7)

3. Funerals are better than weddings-vs. 2a 2a comparative; 2b completing More is learned at funerals than at weddings. Testing produces growth better than colobration, Sober reality profits the soul.

4. Sorrow is better than laughter -vs. 3.4 contrasting Sobermindedness in the trials of life more protitable, than life's merry-making. Solomon is encouraging benefit from the experience of sorrow, not to live in it.

5. Better receive rebuke them listen to - vs. 5-7 foolishness completive Verse 5 states a premise, Verse & completes the picture, Verse 7 rounds out the idea. Wisdom will always win out over foolery, especially above the sun,

6. To end is better than to begin -vs. 8 comparitive It is easier to start than it is to finish. The excitement of starting gives way to the joy of completing.

7. A patient spirit is better than a-vs. 8b-10 proved spirit comparitive & God desires to develop our character from birth to death. completive This includes replacing pride with patience. Pride pushes patience aside. Patience develops character. We are taught through patience to live in the present, not the past, or the future.

In the last 4 verses, Solomon explains the advantages of wisdom:

A. Wisdom guards against pititalls vs. 11-12 The wise person makes less mistakes and learns how to preserve his life

B. Wisdom gives a divine	perspective	vs. 13-14
Wisdom helps one to consid	er the work of God	. We cannot change what God has done nor can we kno

Two lessons for today 1. Seck God when making decisions in life 2. Ask God to reveal to us what we do not understand

II. Wisdom at Work - vs. 15-29

A. Wisdom provides balance vs. 15-18 • Not to be so pious we cannot face reality (i.e. too heavenly bound to be any earthly good) • Not to be so wicked that your life/soul is in danger.

- B. Wisdom provides strength vs. 19-22
- 1. Strength to handle sin
- 2. Strength to avoid entrapment
- 3. Strength to deal with criticism
- C. Wisdom provides insight vs. 23-28
- 1. Understanding only comes from God
- 2. Sexual adventure is not satisfying
- 3. The problem is within not without

Solomon's wisdom leads him to understand that evildoes not come from God. Man's problems are of his own making. Wisdom helps us to know where to lay the blame for the problems of life.
