 - Reconciliation is offered to the offender because it has been earned.
- Forgiveness is unconditional, regardless of a lack of repentance.
 - Reconciliation is conditional based on repentance.

Question: “After we forgive someone, must we also try to be reconciled?”

Answer: (Proverbs 22:24)

E. What Is Divine Forgiveness?

(Daniel 9:9)

• Divine forgiveness is the fact that God, in His mercy, chose to release you from the penalty for your sins. (Unfortunately, some people refuse to receive this gift from God.)

(Psalm 103:8, 10, 12)

• Divine forgiveness was extended by Jesus, who paid the penalty for our sins in full—He died on the cross as payment for the sins of all people. While we owed a debt we could not pay, He paid a debt He did not owe.

(Isaiah 53:6).

• Divine forgiveness is an extension of grace as seen in the Greek word charizomai, which is translated “forgive” and means “to bestow a favor unconditionally.” The Greek word charis means “grace.” You are an expression of God’s grace when you forgive others with divine forgiveness.

(Ephesians 4:32)

(Genesis 45:5–8)

The Secret to Joseph’s Success

• “Do not be distressed and do not be angry.”

• “God sent me.”

• “He made me.”

(Romans 8:28)
